NAME OF CLUB	DESCRIPTION & DETAILS
Child Development Club	The Child Development Club's mission is to provide networking opportunities and resources for students interested in the Early Childhood field. The club also focuses on professional development, networking, fundraisers, fund activities, and crafts.
Computer Science Club	The Computer Science Club is a place for students interested in STEM! We will be working on large-scale projects, hosting workshops for real-world use of computer science, and meeting regularly to update everybody about upcoming activities. As we say; live to code, love to code!
Mudslingers	We will be meeting once per month to discuss about what's going on in the ceramics world and important issues regarding ceramics. We discuss the historical impact that it has on and in our society; and how ceramics is used in our every day life. In addition to that, we will prepare for our annual holiday sale.
Rocketeers at OCC	We make rockets and drones. No experience needed (we don't have any either).
Surf Club	Our goal is to establish a safe community for like-minded OCC individuals to come together and bond over a shared mutual interest: Surfing. Surfing is one of the healthiest activities for both your body and your mind. We encourage anyone who currently surfs or who always wanted to try to check out our club. This is a great opportunity to meet friends and have amazing experiences. We will be hosting beach days at local surf breaks and occasional club-wide events.
The Hidden Opponent at Orange Coast College	The culture of athletics makes it hard for athletes to differentiate between hard work and pushing too far. Taking care of mental health is associated with weakness. Although a growing number of athletes have started speaking out about their struggles, an estimated 92% of colleges still don't have adequate support for athletes. Mental and physical health remain on separate playing fields. The Hidden Opponent is an accredited nonprofit and advocacy group dedicated to raising awareness for student-athlete mental health. Through advocacy, education, and support, our goal is to end mental health stigma in sports culture.
